CHAPEL HILL HIGH SCHOOL

TYLER, TEXAS

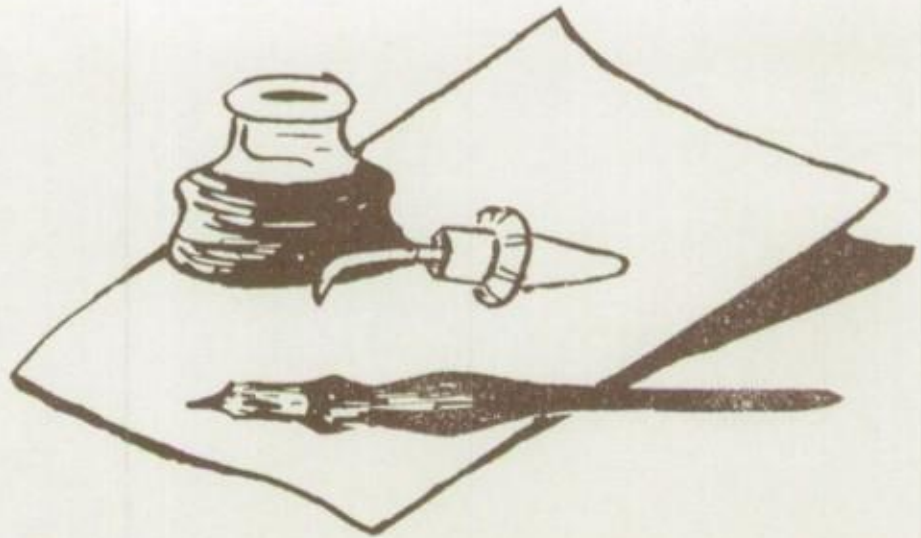

Foreword

In presenting this 1953-1954 edition of "The Bulldog", we have endeavored to give you an everlasting picture of the life and activities, as well as the traditions, of Chapel Hill High School.

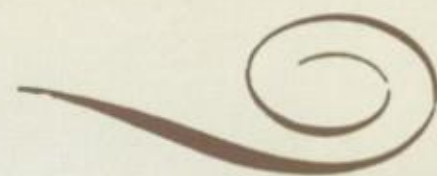

Whatever the years may bring, the memory of this year will be forever kept alive as you turn through the pages of this yearbook.

Dedication

We, the BULLDOG STAFF, dedicate this annual to our fourth year graduating seniors of Chapel Hill High School.

These seniors will long be remembered for their spirit of unity, their high ideals of democracy, their faith in God, and their willingness to co-operate with the faculty and other students to make Chapel Hill High School one that everyone would enjoy being in and would be proud to be a part of.

SENIORS, for these reasons and many more, we dedicate THE 1954 BULLDOG to you.

Superintendent's Message

Education is the process by which an individual learns to make the maximum achievement of which he is capable, consistent with social good. As we have worked together at Chapel Hill High School each has been an inspiration in understanding himself, the world in which we live, and making intelligent decisions concerning our place in this world and the world to come.

Principal's Message

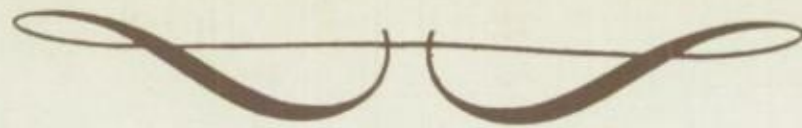

It gives me great pleasure to have the honor of addressing the students and faculty of so great an institution as Chapel Hill School. Allow me to say that nothing is great just by accident. Anything becomes great through the efforts of someone. I feel that our school is something all of us can well be proud of because the students and faculty have made it so. By constant effort and vigilance in maintaining the basic democratic principles and high moral and scholastic standards upon which we operate, we shall always have a school to which we can point with pride. Because we are proud of what we have, we can maintain a school spirit that will be second to none.

May I say that I appreciate the efforts of every student and faculty member who has helped to make our school the best. You deserve the best; let us keep it that way.

When you get married,
and have twins
don't call on me
for life depends.

Love always,
Sue

your hair is brown
your eyes is blue
you look like my dog, but I love him,
too.

Ann

you are a cute, nice,
and good little girl.
I will love you always.

Glenda

Dear Kay

you are a nice girl.
I have enjoy going to school with you love Doris

When your grown and pretty and good you'll be mine always love you Linda.

Dear little Kay,
Always so live and gay
Keep your self sweet
this way,
From life you'll reap good pay.
your teacher,
Mrs. Henderson
